A fast-paced day of theatre for students in foster care. We’ll share stories, learn to improvise, make new friends and gain confidence expressing ourselves. We’ll also play games, make art together, and explore using scripts and our imaginations!

Cost: $75.00 per child for the entire day (includes lunch). This program fee will be paid by the SC Foster Parent’s Association for any youth in foster care.

Facilitator: Dale Savidge, PhD, Registered Drama Therapist

Age range and group size: For teens just completing 7th grade through those who’ll complete 12th grade in spring 2020. The group will be capped at 15 students.

To register: Contact Lisa Franklin of the SC Foster Parents Association by email at SmartFun@scfpa.com or by phone at 803.240.8189.

Dr. Dale Savidge holds a PhD in English and Theatre from the University of South Carolina. He is also a Registered Drama Therapist under the guidelines of the North American Drama Therapy Association. Through the Applied Theatre Center in Greenville, he has created theatre programs for people on the autism spectrum, the homeless, children in foster care, adolescents in psychiatric treatment facilities, adolescents and adults in residential addiction treatment centers, and teens in juvenile detention. Dale and his wife Tamara are foster parents in Greenville County.
